

Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA)

Protecting children's privacy online

Heritage Bank's website, online banking and mobile application are not directed to individuals under the age of thirteen (13), and we request that these individuals do not provide Personal Information through these sites. We do not knowingly collect information from children under 13 without parental consent. Visit the Federal Trade Commission website for more information about the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA).